

Let the dogs out
News Herald Viewpoints

July 9, 2006

How come cities like Sarasota, Virginia Beach, Va., San Diego, Calif., and Destin have areas (beaches and parks) for dogs and we don't? People should not be fined for wanting a place to let their dogs play.

We are making Panama City a place for condos, but no place for our kids to take the dogs to run and play. Yes, we should take care of Shell Island, but at what price?

Also, are we doing more harm with the ATVs on Shell Island? How many sea turtle nesting spots are being driven over?

Let's be reasonable.

Jim Bournias, Panama City Beach